Get personal with Aetna Smart SourceSM

SmartSource takes you beyond the traditional online search. The info is provided based on your age, where you live and other important health information provided in your Personal Health Record. It's what we refer to as a super powerful search engine for any health topic you can think of.

No matter where you are or what time of day, we've designed helpful and practical tools to make your life a little easier. It's what we call people care.

- Research your symptoms and what they might mean
- Get the latest tips and trends on treatment plans
- Review what you may be able to do to prevent issues
- Learn about commonly prescribed medications
- Search for doctors and specialists in your area
- Use the health map feature
